Phoenix AsSALT Tour Re-scheduled for 2008

(December 7, 2007 - Phoenix, AZ) Today, the Global Breakthrough Ministry announced the postponement of the Phoenix AsSALT Tour scheduled for Saturday, December 15, 2007. The FREE event is slated to be re-scheduled for 2008.

“This founding team has chosen to set a very high standard for this event while honoring the people of Phoenix, our donors, sponsors and partners” stated Daniel Southern, Breakthrough Ministry President. “When it became apparent that all the pieces were not in place to realize this standard, we made the unanimous decision to re-schedule the event for 2008.”

The ministry founded by actor, Stephen Baldwin partners with communities, churches and other non-profit organizations to engage young people and at risk youth with a faith-based message of encouragement and hope. The AsSALT Tour events feature skate boarding, BMX, extreme free-style motocross and a rock concert.

“We are grateful for the support we’ve received from the community. We are moving forward so we can come back in 2008 with a great event for the youth of Phoenix.”
